Drone Use Approval Process

Drone use on premises can only take place after approval has been provided by the Risk Management Office:

Insurance:

- Hotel is to ensure that Vendor:
  - Signs a Vendor Insurance Contract (see page #2)
  - Provides a Certificate of Insurance which complies Vendor Insurance Contract
  - Provides documentation (email, etc.) from its insurance agent that specifically states the drone is covered by the General Liability insurance policy.
- Hotel will need to forward the above items to the Risk Management Office

Hotel will communicate with proposed drone vendor and verify the following items to ensure that proposed drone use will comply with federal regulations:

- The pilot must have and produce copy of the Remote Pilot's license as designated by the FAA
- The unmanned drone(s) must be registered with the FAA and vendor must produce proper documentation advising as such.
- Unmanned drone must weigh less than 55 lbs., inclusive any equipment or payload they are carrying
- The unmanned drone must remain within the visual line of sight of the remote pilot in command
- The unmanned drone may not operate over any persons not directly participating in the piloting/operation of the drone
- The unmanned drone can only operate during daylight hours
- The maximum altitude cannot exceed 400 feet above ground level
- The maximum groundspeed allowed for the drone is 100 mph (87 knots)
- The pilot cannot operate the drone from a moving vehicle
- Drones should only be operated outdoors

Final approval will be provided by Risk Management Office after confirmation is received that above items have been verified and insurance documents have been submitted.

VENDOR CONTRACT

This written contract is entered into and effective upon execution by the parties named below. This written contract will be effective as of the most recent date of signature below. The parties agree as follows:

The entity named below agrees to provide a service and or product to Rosen Hotels & Resorts Inc., and affiliated entities, convention groups, etc. pursuant to order(s) to be entered into between the various parties.

The undersigned shall provide the insurance coverages listed below to Rosen Hotels & Resorts Inc., and affiliated entities, for as long as the entity named below provides services and/or products to Rosen Hotels & Resorts Inc. and affiliated entities, convention groups, etc.,. The insurance requirements in this written contract supersede all other prior written or oral requirements for insurance.
